

Your one-stop shop for all your property needs.

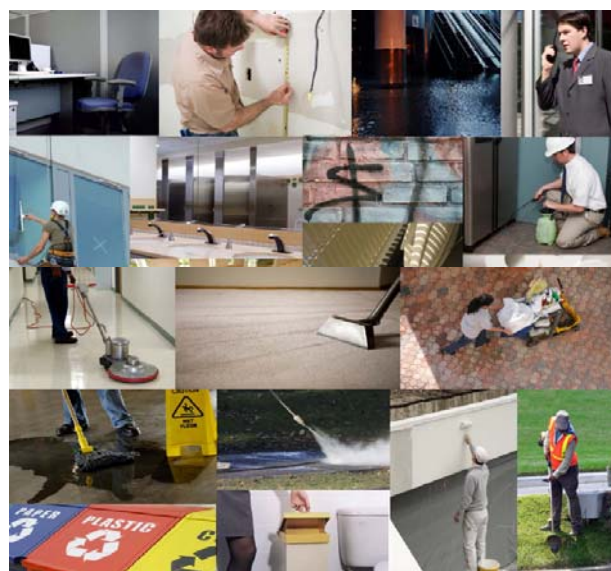

SKG Property Services Australia provide an array of professional facility services to a large range and scope of industries. The year 2009 has seen SKG continue its rapid growth by expanding its portfolio of services into new and exciting areas.

The beauty of SKG providing an integrated service system is obvious. It offers:

- the ability to solve any property service issue under the one roof
- optimum costing due to the elimination of other service providers and their high cost structures
- unmatched integrated service experience and highly skilled professionals across all fields
- a 'continuous development' culture in terms of finding new ways to expand service abilities
- access to range of industry contacts and relations
- one dedicated group servicing all property needs
- one team = one heart philosophy.

SKG Property Services Australia is without a doubt the total integrated solution to all your property needs.
